Man, 92, Crowned King of Old Folks At Yardley Fete

YARDLEY, Sept. 28 — A 92-year-old Yardley resident was crowned King at the Bucks County Old Folks Day held at the Yardley Community Center yesterday. The oldest member of the group, Harry South, was crowned by Mrs. Walter Robinson, an official of the Bucks County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Beck, a youngster of 89, of Washington Crossing, oldest woman present, was crowned Queen by Dr. John Flood, mayor of New Hope. She received a corsage, pocketbook, scarf, stockings, and a dinner for two.

The prize for the oldest brother and sister went to Mrs. Paul Woodward and her brother, Lester J. Smith, both of Newtown. They are both over 70. Smith and his wife were the oldest married couple, too.

Other awards went to John Eisler, Brownsburg, who told the funniest story, and Mrs. Maise Randall, Newtown, for the most interesting experience.

The Yardley Civic Association sponsored the affair.

Two U. S. Army doctors have advanced the theory that the ancient Buddhist practice of shaving the heads of new-born babies contributed largely to the spread of leprosy. The Army scientists believe the germs entered the babies' bodies through occasional nicks caused by the razor.

De-Fanging Ammo Army Engineers

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (INS) — A small group of highly skilled army engineers is carrying out the ticklish job of cleaning up 30 New Mexico World War II target ranges under the title "operation de-dud." Two eight-man teams from the U. S. Army Engineer Corps are scouring desert target ranges 51-miles west of Albuquerque with electronic devices, shovels and courage.

Some ranges already cleaned up have yielded as many as 5,000 dud shells, aerial practice bombs and rockets. Of this number about two to three per cent are still "alive."

Lutherans Break Site in Levittown

LEVITTOWN, Sept. 28 — Steam shovels were first to break ground yesterday for the new United Lutheran Church, to be built at Lake-side drive and Low lane. The Rev. Charles E. Fair, pastor of the church followed the steam shovels, to break ground in a cross that had been staked out on the ground. Then each of the more than 500 members of the congregation present had an opportunity to turn a shovelful of dirt.

Dr. Roy Winters, superintendent of the Lutheran ministerium, spoke to the group. The church choir sang a special anthem and the entire group saluted the flag. Eight visiting ministers from Philadelphia, Trenton, and Pennel were present at the ceremony.

Firemen Quench Oil Stove Blaze

Four Bristol fire companies, and Edgely Fire Company, were called to Bristol Terrace II this morning when an oil stove flared up at 566 Court B and sent smoke fumes through the home. Damage was confined to the stove.

Both Parties Mourn A. Harry Clayton

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 28 — Prominent Republican and Democratic party officials mourned the passing of A. Harry Clayton, who held the post of Bucks County GOP chairman until his death.

The funeral of the late County Chairman will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Reed Funeral Home, West Court street.

Reached by telephone and personal interview concerning the death of Clayton, prominent Bucks County citizens made the following comment:

Feels Loss

Coroner Russell J. T. Ferris:

"The loss of County Chairman Clayton will be felt keenly. He was an ardent and fearless worker for the Republican Party in Bucks County. His demise will be missed more and more as we go along, even though capable hands will take over piloting and leadership of the organization."

"Mr. Clayton was a hard and honest worker. In his heart he was very sincere in his obligations to all fellow committee men and committee women. His death brings a test of unity which is needed as new Republicans continue to move into Bucks County daily. The organization must be backed up 100 per cent so that we can carry on to future victory. As Chairman Clayton

Pilot Dies After Small Plane Rips Into Wire

2nd Flyer Listed As 'Fair' At Trenton Hospital

The pilot of a small plane which crashed into a meadow near Beaver Dam road, Bristol Township, Saturday, died 12 hours after the crash in Mercer Hospital, Trenton. Hospital physicians said the victim, Elmer Jones, 35, 524 Main street, Riverton, N. J., remained unconscious until his death early yesterday morning.

Another victim of the tragedy, John W. Bintliff, 38, of 605 Fairview street, Riverside, N. J., who was in the craft at the time of the accident, was listed in fair condition by hospital physicians.

The plane, identified by Chief John R. Stewart, of Bristol Township Police, as a Luscombe Model 8-A, crashed into a static wire narrowly missing a 135,000 volt high tension cable. The plane plunged earthward trapping the two occupants in the twisted wreckage.

Plunges to Field

The crash occurred on the property of the Philadelphia Electric Company right-of-way in a field near Beaver Dam road located about 2500 feet from a landing strip adjoining the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company plant.

Lawrence Karrow, of 186 Crabtree drive, and Wallace McManam, of Birch drive, both of Levittown, were working about a half mile away and saw the plane crash into the static wire. They ran to the scene of the crash and tried to clear away some of the twisted metal of the fuselage to reach the unconscious occupants. When their efforts failed they summoned the Bristol Township police. Also called to the crash were the Bucks County Rescue Squad, State Police, and volunteer firemen of Edgely and Croydon. Chief Stewart and Robert A. Porter were in charge of the wreckage uninjured.

Workers Labor

Rescue workers labored for 35 minutes using crowbars and metal cutting equipment before they were able to extricate the victims. The Bucks County Rescue Squad answered the call with two ambulances, an oxygen bearing jeep and an emergency truck.

Police said the pilot apparently tried to fly the craft into the strip, and as he attempted to clear the transmission cable the plane crashed into the static wire a few feet below.

Jones suffered a possible skull fracture and compound fractures of the right leg. Bintliff was treated for lacerations of the face and compound fractures of both legs.

Parishioners Plan Banquet To Honor Elevated Pastor

A testimonial banquet in honor of the Very Rev. Peter A. Pinci, O. S. S. T. on his elevation to the Provincialate of the Order of the Most Holy Trinity in the United States will be given Sunday evening, Oct. 4, in the Goodwill House Company hall, Swain and Mifflin streets.

Father Pinci served as pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church before being promoted to the Provincialate and still maintains his office in St. Ann's rectory.

The banquet is being sponsored by the parishioners of the parish and over 500 will be in attendance. There will be a meeting of the various committees this evening in the rectory at eight o'clock.

Rev. Candido Cecconi, who succeeded Rev. Pinci as pastor of St. Ann's, is advisor to the committee. The general committee chairman is Emilio Caucci. Miss Fannie M. Spadaccino is secretary and Vincent Della, treasurer.

The ticket committee is composed of: Thomas Mulholland, Fannie Spadaccino, Emilio Caucci, Valentine DeFelice, and Beatrice Misanelli.

Crash Survivor Listed 'Serious'

LANSDALE, Sept. 28 — The 20-year-old survivor of an airplane crash in New Britton township, Friday, Robert Platt, of Somerton, was reported slightly improved, but in a "very serious condition" this morning at North Penn Hospital.

Chief Surgeon Dr. Frank Boston said Platt, suffering face and leg burns, is spending much of his time in an oxygen tent, but reported the patient's temperature as returned to normal.

Two other occupants of the plane, Harvey L. Weir, 25, of Richboro, pilot and Henry M. Martin, 22, of Abington, were killed in the fire resulting when the plane crashed. The crash occurred on the Harvey Moyer Farm, near Line Lexington.

The ticket committee is composed of: Thomas Mulholland, Fannie Spadaccino, Emilio Caucci, Valentine DeFelice, and Beatrice Misanelli.

TWO UNIDENTIFIED spectators look at what's left of the plane that plunged to the earth on the outskirts of Bristol township Saturday afternoon. The pilot of the Luscombe two-seater, Elmer Jones, 35, 524 Main street, Riverton, N. J., died yesterday in Mercer Hospital, Trenton. Jack W. Bintliff, 38, 605 Fairview avenue, Riverton, passenger in the plane, is listed as in fair condition.

Ancient Airplane Crashes At Fete; Pilot Uninjured

QUAKERTOWN, Sept. 28 — Paul Anderson of the Old Star airport, Langhorne, crashed his old model plane into a plowed field near here yesterday as 12,000 spectators looked on. Anderson stepped out of the wreckage uninjured.

Overturns Near Crowd

Flying at a low altitude, the plane suddenly veered while it was 100 feet in the air and came down nose-down. It crashed and overturned about 75 feet from the ground of some 300 persons.

Anderson picked his way out of the wrecked plane while ambulances and fire apparatus raced to the spot.

The plane consisted of wings and fuselage which contained no fabric covering.

Just Off Ground

It was flying as part of the performance "Flight of Yester-year" and had just completed a flight across the field about 10 feet off the ground.

As it approached the roped-off section of the field, the plane rose, then veered and crashed into the field. Officials said the skeleton plane maneuvering 10 feet above the ground is normally scheduled at all air show performances.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol May 18, 1905. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Howard R. Thornton has leased a coal yard, wagons, stables, etc., from William E. Doron for one year, with the privilege of buying.

Several members of the Mohican Social Club have entered the swelling ranks of Bristol yacht owners and have purchased the power boat "Alfred T." from Julian McLaughlin. The new owners will overhaul the craft, and change the name to "Mohican."

Mrs. Annie W. Groom, of Bristol, was one of the fifteen scholars who received a diploma last week at the closing of the spring term of the Pennsylvania Orthopedic Institute and School of Mechanotherapy, Philadelphia, in the scientific application of medical massage, Swedish movements and medical and orthopedic gymnastics. Mrs. Groom also received a diploma in electro-therapeutics.

(From our Emilie Correspondent)—Apropos of the article in last week's Gazette regarding old residents in or near Fallsington it will be of interest to mention the survivors of the family of the late David and Elizabeth LaRue, at one time owners of the farm now in the possession of John McCoy, near "Chicken Foot" cross roads.

Mrs. Catherine Howell, the youngest member of the family, is 85 years old. Mrs. Howell lives with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Brown. Susan Hellings is 86 and resides in Bristol.

Elizabeth Hellings, 88 years of age, lives near Edgely.

Moses LaRue, the oldest member of the family, has reached the advanced age of 97. He is at present living in Philadelphia and is hale and hearty, with every prospect of reaching the century mark.

Morrisville and Fallsington residents are very much interested in the announcement made that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is going to build the largest yard in Pennsylvania there and will buy up about 400 acres of land. Consequently all sorts of exorbitant prices are being asked for land. Demands as high as $200 and $300 an acre are made.

The railroad company proposes to extend its present yard from Morrisville to Fallsington, 800 feet from each side of the present tracks and west as far as fifty or sixty tracks and will make the largest yard in the State. Negotiations are being made for the purchase of the Samuel G. Moon nursery, the Magnolia mill property, the C. H. Carver farm and the M. K. Wright farm, which comprises about 350 acres. From these farms the railroad company proposes to take the dirt necessary to fill up the meadows and make a level yard and five or six steam engines will be put to work accomplishing this end. Preliminary operations ton so successfully has done for the past 24 years."

Fair and Conscientious

County Commissioner John T. Welsh, Doylestown, Democrat member of the Board and former Democratic Party Chairman:

"I have known Clayton ever since I was a kid. I went to school with his son, Winfield, and I can say that Clayton and I have been friends ever since I was a small boy, and we have been neighbors for the past 12 years.

"I always found Mr. Clayton fair and conscientious in his work. Not only has the Republican Party in Bucks county lost a competent leader, but a solid citizen as well."

Clerk of Quarter Sessions Lamont Marsh, Bristol: "He will be greatly missed by our Republican party."

Constable C. Clifford Beck, Doylestown: "Mr. Clayton was secretary of the Morrisville-Trenton line at the corner of Smith and Bridge streets in Morrisville. The car on the trial trip started over the new curve and frogs at five minutes of five o'clock with Superintendent Charles Blondell at the switch box. A number of invited guests including G. R. Mitchell and J. W. Pulem officials of the Johnson line, B. F. Barnes, William H. Murphy, John Peze, a Gazette representative, and several Morrisville residents, made the initial trip....

Deputy Prothonotary William Carlin Jr., Chalfont: "I have known Mr. Clayton since I attended the same church he did, the Doylestown Methodist, when I was a small boy and I will always remember him and miss his friendliness."

For 40 Years

Deputy Register of Wills, C. Herbert Haldeman, Doylestown: "For more than 40 years I have known Mr. Clayton and have always admired him as a gentleman and leader."

C. William Freed, Quakertown, veteran Democratic attorney in Bucks county: "I got to know Harry Clayton in 1908. Although I was always on the other side of the fence politically I have always admired him because he was fair, competent and friendly in his relations with me."

Claire G. Biehn, Quakertown attorney: "Mr. Clayton was kindly, friendly and always a gentleman."

J. Lawrence Grim, Perkasie: "Although we never saw eye-to-eye politically, Harry Clayton was always courteous, friendly and a nice man to do business with when he was in the Court House as a county official."

T. Sidney Cadwallader, Yardley attorney: "Harry Clayton, as I remember him, always like to talk over 'old times' and he was most conversant and congenial."

New Refrigerant For No-Drip Picnic

NAMFA, Idaho — (INS) — A picnic with cold drinks and chiller salads can now be achieved without carrying dripping ice cubes or fuming dry ice in the picnic hamper.

There's a new refrigerant which comes in a can. Actually, it's an air-tight can of water which you freeze yourself in your own refrigerator, pack along with your perishables to keep them cold, and then take back and re-freeze for your next picnic.

This item — intended for sportsmen, picnickers and travelers — is said to have several advantages over plain ice. The manufacturer says it won't drip or melt, it stays dry and cold for hours, and can be re-frozen and re-used indefinitely. The cans also are said to take up little space, with six cans doing the cooling job of 25 pounds of ice.

HAVE YOU TRIED WONDER BREAD LATELY?

Made With Even Better Quality Protein Flour To Give You
A Better Loaf Of Bread

Surveys Show 1 Out Of 2 Children Fail To Get The Recommended Amounts

Of Food-Energy For Normal Weight And Growth Gains.

In Just 7 Days Start Your Child Growing Again With Wonder Bread!

The Bread That Helps Build Strong Bodies 8 Ways!

Note How Wonder Bread Compares
With Meat, Milk, Fish And Eggs—See Chart

Children Go For Wonder Bread
Because Doubly Fresh

An average boy of 10 should gain about 6 pounds in one year. Which is at the rate of ½ pound per month; or less than 2 ounces each week.

But any time your child fails to gain puts her or him that far behind.

Why Lack of Food-Energy
Causes Weight and Growth Loss

Carbohydrate and fat supply food-energy. Protein supplies the "building blocks" of growth.

Now Nature cannot use carbohydrate and fat alone for growth, but it can use protein for energy.

That's why your child fails to get enough carbohydrate and fat food-energy. Nature uses the protein for food-energy instead of growth.

The result: Your child's growth is stunted.

Wonder Bread Helps Your Child

Grow Bigger and Stronger 8 Ways

A well-balanced diet calls for meat, milk, eggs, fruit and both yellow and green-leaved vegetables. And carbohydrate food for energy. Like Wonder Bread.

Because not only does Wonder Bread supply food-energy but protein. Study the chart and see how Wonder Bread helps build bigger and stronger bodies 8 ways.

To encourage your child to eat a well-balanced diet and 8 slices of Wonder Bread each day, show him or her this ad. Because it shows how any boy or girl can grow bigger and stronger 8 ways—which is what they want to excel in their favorite sports.

Measure your child in the doorway. Make a pencil mark now. Then in 3 months and 6 months—watch the mark shoot up!

Get Wonder Bread Today

Wonder Bread is a wonderful food. Because it helps build strong bodies 8 ways.

And Wonder Bread has a wonderful flavor. Because it is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it and fresh when you eat it.

Get Wonder Bread fresh from your grocer today. And—start your child growing again in just 7 days.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Ye shall not fear them for the Lord your God he shall fight for you.

—De. 3:22.

The forces of decency and righteousness are far stronger than the forces of evil. Get on the right side and victory is certain.

HOPE IN THE OPPRESSED

Rumors that top red leaders, including the ousted Beria, seek asylum in the United States may be fantastic, though satellite communist officials frequently jump the iron curtain and ask for protection.

There is no doubt that many, worried about their future amidst the constant purges, would like to get out, though they belong to a privileged class in the red lands. Their privileges are converted into the deadliest personal peril when they fall into disfavor with the Kremlin.

Back of this official class are tens of millions who live under unsatisfactory economic and political conditions. At every opportunity they crowd the facilities of Western Europe where they seek freedom. If all who want to get out were able to do so, there would be the greatest migration of peoples in history.

But no such shift is possible or desirable. Hard as it is for the oppressed peoples, the world will benefit if they are oppressed to the point of unendurability. At the propitious time they will revolt and throw off their masters.

British Commoners Admonished By Peer

By Inez Robb

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 — (INS) — The British, God love them, are a wonderful people, and the more I learn about them, the more I wonder.

Over the centuries, the tight little isle has been engaged in a stout battle to keep the lower classes in their places. Even in these trying atomic times a leader has once more arisen to lead the crusade.

He is Capt. Iain Moncreiffe, one of Britain's most blue-blooded noblemen. He has sharply ordered the common people to quit putting on airs. The sterner son among the commonality has no right to be addressed as "mister" and the Captain has commanded them to stop such pretentious nonsense.

"Mister" is correctly the title of a University graduate and can only be achieved through a certain amount of personal merit," the Captain said a few days ago. And what he says goes, as he is an authority on lineage, titles, coats of arms and chivalric matters.

Capt. Moncreiffe says it is "arrant snobbery" — what's that again, Cap — for old John Doe and Richard Roe to go around calling themselves "mister," unless they are Oxford or Old Swash, 23, or have achieved a soupcon of personal merit.

During the months I spent in England as a reporter during World War II, there was a lot of loose talk about the disappearance forever and ever and ever of the good old British caste or class system.

"The old school tie has gone for good" the British papers repeated daily, and were dutifully echoed by the American press. Swept along by war-time emotionalism, I swallowed this malarky hook, line and sinker.

Subsequent visits to England made me suspect that the old school tie was resurgent. But it was not until last June, when I was staying with friends in London, that I realized that Britain was once more on an even keel and the old tie flying from the mast.

The scion of the home in which I was a guest is Tommy, aged 4. He is enrolled in a proper kindergarten, an adjunct of a famous "public" school.

One morning as the adults were having their coffee, Tommy's nanny, white and distressed, burst into the room.

"Madam," she cried in a voice of doom, "Tommy has lost his tie."

"No," exclaimed both parents in tones which made me realize that catastrophe had struck.

"But he can't go to school without it," Tommy's mother said in accents that can be described only as stricken.

"Be calm, Helen," Tommy's father ordered, with the air of a man assuming command in the Johnston food.

"Does he only have one tie?" I asked innocently.

Tommy's parents turned upon their American guest to look which indicated that her scalp lock was showing.

"He has lost his school tie," said Tommy's father, as if explaining elemental facts to an aborigine.

"He can't go to school without

WASHINGTON REPORT

By Fulton Lewis, Jr.
(Copyright, 1953,
King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 — I am reminded of a quotation from Abraham Lincoln that seems to fit the recent occasion when secretary of the treasury George Humphrey reaffirmed that we are going to get an income tax cut this coming January.

The quotation reads: "If we could first know where we are, and whither we are tending, we could better judge what to do, and how to do it."

Secretary Humphrey's pleasant boldness camouflages a lot more encouraging news than the income tax cut. It indicates that this administration knows not only where it is now, but even knows where it is going with its taxpaying customers.

I have been doing a little research of my own recently and some eye-stopping figures emerged, indicating beyond refutation that Humphrey and the remainder of the LEWIS, JR. Eisenhower team have tackled a financial job unprecedented in history. They have tackled it with competence and boldness and we ought to get on our knees and offer thanks that some sanity is beginning to emerge in Washington.

There have been, in our history, 32 Republican budgets presented to us citizens. Beginning in 1890, when the per capita debt was $17.80, through 1933, the U. S. Treasury, when managed by Republicans, showed a cumulative surplus of $1,884,826,101.

With this bit of history out of the way, let's take a look at the 31 Democratic administrations ranging from 1894 to 1952. In 1894 the pre capita debt was $14.89. In 1952 it was $1,650.27. Today it is closer to $2,000 as we near the peak of spending contracted for by the previous administration.

The cumulative treasury deficit at the end of 31 budgetary years under Democratic administrations was $257,553,367,908. A few billion more have been added, bringing today's total close to the $275,000,000,000 peak, again thanks to commitments of the gone-but-far-forgotten Democratic administrations.

The point I make is that there were deficits in 25 of the 31 years under Democratic control. It was this ingrained idea of free spending that the Republicans now controlling the federal government had to move out of the way in order to save us taxpayers some of our cash.

At a time when employment and earnings in the nation are at a record high, there are 37,000,000 persons receiving checks from federal, state or local governments.

In public assistance alone there are 5,289,838 who cash monthly which is something to keep in mind when you hear the wailing at the wall — wailing not from those who have put up the cash during the past two decades, but from those who have spent it.

MEETING SET

EDDINGTON, Sept. 28 — There will be a special meeting of the Eddington Volunteer Fire Company, tomorrow night at 8 p. m. The group will meet at the fire station.

The job has to be done, however, without wrecking our economy. And it is being done against an entrenched philosophy that has nurtured a generation of federal employees who are teethed on nothing but spend, spend, spend.

The government as such produces no wealth. When businessmen raised their voices against Democratic spending follies, they were mocked in and outside the White House. This is no longer the case; what secretary Humphrey had to say regarding forthcoming tax cuts is a reflection of the changed atmosphere.

A huge upheaval is underway in Washington in respect to government spending. The first fruits are ripening. Others are on the way,

Couple Wed on Sunday Take A Motor Trip to Canada

A home reception and a two weeks motor trip north were included in plans for the Moore-Virgulti wedding, which took place at the hour of two in St. Ann's R. C. Church yesterday afternoon.

Escorted by her father, Mr. Agostino Virgulti, 225 Washington street, Miss Barbara J. Virgulti, made her way to the altar costumed in white, there to become the bride of Mr. Andrew A. Moore, Jr. The satin gown, with front skirt panel of lace, and lace bodice inserts, featured a chapel train, mandarin collar, and was patterned with long sleeves. Her headpiece, tiara effect, was of satin, scalloped at the top, elongated pearls being used as trim. This held a fingertip veil of tulle bordered in satin. Her cascade of stephanotis surrounded a white orchid.

The sole attendant, Miss Gloria Trasatti, Lincoln avenue, wore a floor-length model of real silk in medium blue tone. Made strapless style, the bodice had unpressed pleats, and with this was worn a short jacket. The head-piece was of light blue lace, this being set off by bugle beads and brilliants. Silver slippers were worn; and her cascade of white bouvardia had a blue orchid at the center.

Best man was Mr. Albert Boccardo, Mulberry lane, Levittown.

Mrs. Virgulti was attired in mink tone faille, black accessories, and wore a lavender orchid. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Moore, 342 Monroe street. His mother chose a navy blue ensemble and corsage of white stephanotis.

The bride, a graduate of Bristol High School, also of Rider College, Trenton, N. J., is a clerk at office of Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co. Her husband, a Penna. Railroad conductor, served with the U. S. Army Air Force, being stationed in England during World War II.

Leaving for Niagara Falls, N. Y., Quebec and Montreal, Canada, and the New England states, the former Miss Virgulti wore a pink crepe dress, the jacket having seed pearl and rhinestone trim; pink hat; white gloves; black slippers and bag; and a fur stole. The two will reside at 225 Washington street.

Morrisville Readies For 'Raid' Alert

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 28—Plans for this borough's participation in the state-wide air raid alert Tuesday, Oct. 6, will be completed Friday at a meeting of the Morrisville Civil Defense Council. The council will meet at 8 p. m. at Borough Hall.

Alerts will be sounded at 7:02 p. m. by the Robertson Manufacturing company at Vulcanized Rubber and Plastics company whistles. All clear will be at 7:10.

Councilman Neal Nolan, director of civil defense said the fire sirens would sound their daily tests at 7 p. m., but the alert would not start until two minutes later, when the factory whistles are sounded.

Under the direction of Police Chief John S. Davis, and Air War- den Charles Elcock, all incoming traffic will be halted during the alert.

Attendants Gowned In Mulberry Rose

Gowned in lace, Miss Elizabeth Trasatti made her way to the altar of St. Ann's R. C. Church, Sunday, there at the hour of 11 to take the vows which made her the wife of Mr. Robert Caione, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Caione, 23 Lincoln avenue. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emidio Trasatti, Radcliffe street, Edgely, was given in marriage by her father.

The Rev. Candido Ceconi officiated at the nuptial mass. Music was by vocalist, Mrs. William DiNunzio, Pennel, among whose selections were "The Rosary", and "Ave Maria". Organist was Mrs. Louis V. Freas, Mill street.

The bridal gown was of rose point lace over satin, the cathedral train having layer of tulle between the lace and satin. Accordion pleats down the front panel of the skirt were scattered with iridescent sequins, and sequins also trimmed the neckline. Sleeves were long. A head-band of iridescent sequins held a veil comprised of four tiers of nylon tulle, rose-buds and sequins being scattered on the veil.

Slippers were satin. The white prayer book, topped by a white orchid, was exchanged for a bouquet of white roses and white orchid for the recessional.

The attendants were costumed in mulberry rose, bodices being of velvet, skirts of four tiers of nylon tulle; and with these nylon tulle stoles were worn. Crowns were of pearls and rose velvet. Their white prayer books were covered with mulberry rose tulle, and on each rested two lavender orchids. Linen slippers matched the gown. The flower girl carried a basket of mixed white blooms. The group of attendants: Bridesmaids, Miss Loretta Daniels, Otter street, and Miss Dolores Niccols, Pine Grove street; junior bridesmaids, Mary Jane LaSalle and Judith Mazzanti, Lincoln avenue; flower girl, Cynthia Cuccia, Trenton avenue.

Serving Mr. Caione as best man was Mr. Albert Mannocchi, Wood street; usher being Mr. Robert Liberatore, Lincoln avenue, and ring bearer, David Cagnetti, Chestnut street.

Covers for 50 dinner guests were arranged at Roma Hall, Trenton, N. J., with invitations issued for 600 to the reception in Edgely Fire Co. hall in the evening.

The newlyweds are participating in a month's motor trip to California, the bride travelling in a beige faille suit, pink hat and gloves; black suede and carved leather slippers, with matching bag. She wore a silver blue muskrat cape, and white orchid.

The two will reside with the bride's parents.

Mrs. Trasatti chose for the ceremony a black velvet suit, mauve hat with iridescent sequin trim, mauve gloves, black slippers and a lavender orchid. Mrs. Caione, the bridegroom's mother, selected a black crepe dress, matching accessories, and a lavender orchid.

The invitation list included: Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wible, Claymont, Del.; the Rev. and Mrs. Walter H. Canon, Oak Lane; Mr. and Mrs. William Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Shapcott, Jr., Bristol; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Harrison, Miss Lottie A. Smith, New Burnswick, N. J.; Mrs. Harold H. ## Today's Quiet Moment

Charles E. Fair,
Pastor
United Lutheran Church

Levittown

"Lord, teach us to pray." It was the disciples of Jesus Christ who asked Him for the secret to the power of prayer. Many today do not understand prayer; many Christians leave untapped this hidden source of strength and guidance because they do not know how to pray. The disciples were seeking a deeper and richer prayer life. And they came to the best possible Authority whose very life was a life of prayer. It was then that He gave to them that perfect prayer which we all know as the "Lord's Prayer." Go with me again friend, to the eleventh chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, and meditate upon this prayer of all prayers.

I like to think of the Lord's Prayer as a letter addressed to God. Any one who is a believer may send this prayer up to God. You will notice that the addressee and address appear in the introduction: "Our Father, Who art in Heaven." Following are seven petitions which constitute the body of the letter. The prayer is concluded with a doxology as the complimentary close, and it becomes the prayer of the individual when he affirms his faith and consent to it with the "Amen."

Isn't it wonderful that through Jesus Christ, we come to know God so well and so intimately that we can refer to Him as Father? He seems so close to us because He is Our Father, and we are His children. Just as an earthly father loves and cares for and watches over his children, so our heavenly Father, in a far greater way, loves His children. Each of us is so dear to Him. Has he not told us that the very hairs of our head are numbered? Regardless of the heartache or burden or cross that is yours, heavenly sunshine will begin to flood your soul if you really believe that your God is your Father. Notice the intimate relation that Jesus had with His Father. He was only twelve when He was very conscious of His Father's business. At his baptism, it was the voice of His Father that said, "This is my beloved Son." Kneel with Him in Gethsemane when He prayed, "Father . . . nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done." And it was the Father who stood by at Calvary when He uttered those last words, "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit." Know God as your Father!

Serving Mr. Caione as best man was Mr. Albert Mannocchi, Wood street; usher being Mr. Robert Liberatore, Lincoln avenue, and ring bearer, David Cagnetti, Chestnut street.

Covers for 50 dinner guests were arranged at Roma Hall, Trenton, N. J., with invitations issued for 600 to the reception in Edgely Fire Co. hall in the evening.

The newlyweds are participating in a month's motor trip to California, the bride travelling in a beige faille suit, pink hat and gloves; black suede and carved leather slippers, with matching bag. She wore a silver blue muskrat cape, and white orchid.

Magnolia-Bridesburg Tops St. Ann's With Late Rally

Bridesburg - Magnolia unleashed a vicious second half attack to down St. Ann's A.A., 26-13, yesterday afternoon in the opening game of the Philadelphia Co-operative League on the high school field.

The visitors went into the half-time recess with a 13-0 deficit. They scored in the third quarter to whittle the lead to 13-7 and in the final quarter everything went wrong for the Saints as they saw the Magnolia team cross their goal line three more times to clinch the game.

Frank Rubino and Leo Fiorelli made the St. Ann's touchdowns. Rubino scored from the 1-yard line after a sensational 84-yard run by Joe Schreiner after a pass interception. Fiorelli scored on a 18-yard pass from Sal Accardi.

Lou Saterelli, former Frankford High ace, scored a pair of touchdowns for Bridesburg, with Bill Hudson and Joe Dunn making the others. Hudson, who formerly played with West Chester State Teachers College, made a runback of 60 yards after a punt to make his score while Dunn ran 45 yards to cross the goal line after intercepting a pass.

Even in Downs

Each team registered 9 first downs. Leader of the St. Ann's attack was Bill Hutton, former Burlington High player, whose nice running was responsible for most of the St. Ann's first downs. Joe Bolinski did some good passing for the winning team.

St. Ann's missed a scoring opportunity in the first quarter. Salterelli was smeared on a line play and fumbled. Joe Schreiner recovering for St. Ann's on the Magnolia 20. But when the Saints got on the 11 John Fiorelli fumbled and Nick Grievs fell on the ball for Magnolia. The invaders then booted out of danger temporarily.

Starting on its 47, the Bristol boys started a drive but the march was spoiled by another fumble. Hutton went around end for eight yards and Accardi hit center for a first on the 35. Leo Fiorelli bit hit the line for nine and on the next play, Rubino was pushed out of bounds on the 13. There was a fumble in the St. Ann's backfield with Ray Murray recovering for Magnolia. Again Bridesburg kicked away.

First Tally

In the second period, St. Ann's with line-hitting tactics reached the Magnolia 24 before losing out on downs. Joe Bolinski attempted to boot out but Ed Charlton and Frank Salarczyk blocked the kick with Salarczyk recovering for St. Ann's on the Magnolia 26.

Line plays hauled the ball to the 18 from where Accardi threw his touchdown pass to Fiorelli. Accardi scored the PAT on a line buck.

Following the kickoff, Magnolia on two successful passes by Bolinski got as close as the St. Ann's 25. Bolinski threw another aerial but Messanelli attempted a pass which went straight into the arms of Joe Dunn who raced 45 yards for a touchdown to give Magnolia a 20-13 lead.

Before it was over, Hudson returned another punt from his 40 to the St. Ann's 14 before being shoved out of bounds. After Salterelli picked up 4 yards, Haines rushed the line and did not stop until he was on the 2-yard line. It took Salterelli two plays to take it over. The TD made it 26-13.

Two late passes put St. Ann's on the 15, but this all stopped when Gimbel intercepted the next aerial on his team's 9-yard line.

HELEN REILLY

CHAPTER ONE
PHILIP HAVEN arrived home from Mexico on the afternoon of June the third in a thoroughly bad humor. His niece Libby didn't meet him at the station although he had telephoned that he was coming and he had to take a cab. Carrying his typewriter, Philip Haven mounted steps and crossed the broad stone terrace that was a recent addition deciding that it looked very well. The price had been high. He couldn't quite remember just what it was, but on the whole it was worth it.

Tall and lean, with an energetic forward stoop, at 55, Haven was as vigorous as he had been at 30. He hated his advancing age. The girls were the trouble. He had regarded his two nieces as children until a year or so ago. They weren't children—they were women, and they were behaving like women, in an inconsiderate and irrational manner. Libby particularly.

The hall inside, broad and long, was dimly cool.

"Libby," he shouted, and put down the typewriter.

But the house appeared to be deserted. Then a door upstairs opened and a voice called: "Is that you, Philip? I'll be right down."

"Yes," he said impatiently, "although I hate the sun. Is Libby there?"

Kit said no.

"I don't understand it," Philip said violently. "I got in 10 minutes ago expecting her to meet me at the station, and she wasn't there."

Kit smiled. Libby was her uncle's right hand. She did his typing for him, and listened to his plots, and was a combination secretary and companion, had been since she was 17.

A sudden thought struck Kit. It could very well be . . . If she was right it would be a blow to Philip, a staggering blow. She glanced at her watch.

"I think I might know where Libby might be," she said. "I'll tell you when I see you. If I leave now I can just catch the 7:10." She hung up on the first of a furious barrage of questions and went to the living room.

Philip said irritably, "Do you or don't you know what's happened to Libby—where she is?"

He was genuinely worried. He would be worse than worried when he found out. Libby was 24, but if it had ever occurred to him that she would marry and leave him, that he would cease to be the star-dogged moon, he had never given the slightest indication of it. Poor Philip, she thought, compassionately. He was like a nut, sweet if you could get through the shell to the meat. She let her hands fall and faced him.

"You remember Hugo Cavanaugh?" she said.

Community Services Council to Assemble

The Community Service Council of Bucks County will hold its first fall meeting at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday. The meeting will be held in the new United Services Federation offices on the second floor at 80 N. Main street.

A speaker supplied by the Bucks County Citizens Health Council will talk on the law under which a Bucks County Health Department could be established. Formal committee reports will follow the speaker and a question and answer period.

Vote on Issue Nov. 3

At the business meeting the question of whether the Council should immediately create divisions of Health, Welfare and Recreational

Community will be discussed.

All citizens of the county will be asked at the Nov. 3 election to vote on a referendum on establishment of a Department of Public Health for the county.

Attendance Urged

In the interest of disseminating as much information as possible on this subject, staffs and boards of director of numerous Bucks County agencies have been urged to attend the meeting.

Woodside Holstein Tested For Output

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Sept. 28—With 17,654 pounds of milk and 601 pounds of butterfat to her credit, Woodside Bunnell Ormsby Kent, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by Milton C. Satterthwaite, Woodside, Pa., has completed a 365-day production test in official Herd Improvement Registry.

She was milked twice daily. She was 9 years, 11 months old when she began her testing period.

Her record averages 23 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by her test.

Testing was supervised by Pennsylvania State College, in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

75 Attend Picnic At King's Home

PENNS MANOR, Sept. 28—More than 75 persons attended a picnic sponsored by the Tullytown Republican party at the summer home of Congressman Karl King near Penn Manor. D. John Weiner headed the picnic committee.

D. John Nabin, of the Tullytown GOP group, said, "It was strictly a affair; politics did not make an appearance throughout the day. Everyone enjoyed the outing."

Chief of Safety Council Asks Speed On Superhighway

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 28—A speed-up in starting construction of a proposed superhighway linking downtown Philadelphia and the Delaware River extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, is badly needed, John T. Madijen, chairman of the Lower Bucks County Safety Council said Sunday.

According to Madijen, highways in the county are dangerously over-loaded, and accidents are proportionately increasing. Any move to hasten construction of the proposed $200,000,000 Delaware Expressway would receive his "warmest endorsement," he said.

Madijen revealed that in Lower Bucks County, Routes 1 (Roosevelt boulevard) and 13 (Frankford avenue) have become "accident traps" on which the number of collisions continues to rise. He said the expressway would provide quick and safe transportation for through traffic and at the same time help relieve congestion on secondary arteries. Madijen believes it would be virtually impossible to reduce accident rates unless this step is taken.

A tentative route for the expressway, beginning at Packer avenue in South Philadelphia and meeting the Pennsylvania Turnpike in the vicinity of Tullytown, has been mapped out by the Bucks County Planning Commission.

I. N. S. Woman's Editor
NEW YORK, Sept. 28—(INS)—There's a new gimmick in fashion this year the cocktail or coke or cambric coat.

The cocktail coat is a street-length wrap, almost always unfitted and moderately full with wide, loose sleeves.

It's easy to understand why. This is a coat which must be roomy and dressy enough to be worn over full skirts, narrow skirts, big sleeves, no sleeves and the most crisp or supple of fabrics—without crushing or crimping the style of the dress.

To the woman on a budget, the coming of such a fabric coat is a blessed relief. It is more high-fashion than furs, and infinitely softer on the pocketbook. It has almost as many uses as a fur jacket, can be worn in the daytime, if necessary, by women who go straight from their jobs to their dates. And it is luxury-tax free.

At the business meeting the question of whether the Council should immediately create divisions of Health, Welfare and Recreational

Community will be discussed.

All citizens of the county will be asked at the Nov. 3 election to vote on a referendum on establishment of a Department of Public Health for the county.
